

Full Stops, Question Marks and Exclamation Marks

7. Tick which option is punctuated correctly.

- A. Your skin gets burnt if you stay in the sun for too long. How does the sun burn skin when it is so far away.
- B. your skin gets burnt if you stay in the sun for too long? How does the sun burn skin when it is so far away?
- C. Your skin gets burnt if you stay in the sun for too long? How does the sun burn skin when it is so far away.
- D. Your skin gets burnt if you stay in the sun for too long. How does the sun burn skin when it is so far away?

VF
HW/Ext

8. Correct the underlined punctuation in the sentences below.

The alien walked calmly towards the children but they didn't trust it? Who are you! The boys waited for the alien to answer, but he kept getting closer and closer? Stay away from us. How terrifying this alien is.

VF
HW/Ext

9. Have these been sorted correctly?

Full Stops	Question Marks	Exclamation Marks
A. Come here	C. Can you please pass me a pencil	E. Come here please
B. It is possible to like blue and green	D. When the train arrives, will you let me know which platform it's on	F. What a wonderful day we had at the zoo

Explain your answer.

AR
HW/Ext