

Ready to Launch...

Let's explore - digital photography, landscapes and paintings

Are you a Home Explorer?

- Go on a local walk—what can you find?
- Find a map of the area –can you locate your house or the school?
- Have a go at landscape drawing.
- Carry a biodiversity study in your garden. How many different types of creatures can you count?

How can I become a geographer?

Wow moments

- Juniper hall
- Design and create their own island nation
- Building models of their own island.

Time to celebrate!

- Residential trip to Juniper Hall
- Creating 3D models of islands

Expert knowledge:

- Did you know that the flag of Nepal is the only flag that is not rectangular.
- The first human cities in the world were called 'Ur' and 'Uruk' in what is now Iraq.
- 1 in 7 species in the U.K. face extinction.
- 'Valeriepieris circle', an 5000km diameter circle in Asia, holds over half of the people in the world!
- Approximately 25% of all independent countries are island countries.

English:

- Studying narrative writing through the study of 'The Iron Man' (Ted Hughes).
- To study characters within narrative texts, exploring language around them.
- Creating settings, characters and plot when writing narratives.
- To choose appropriate pronouns or nouns within writing to aid cohesion and avoid repetition.

Science:

- To learn what living things have in common.
- To identify habitats of living things and how to help them.
- To classify vertebrates and invertebrates and create classification keys.
- Thinking and working scientifically.

PE:

- Continuing to improve swimming skills.
- Running, jumping and throwing as a part of athletics.

Geography:

- Developing map reading skills.
- Answering the question 'What makes a nation?', using the case study of El Salvador.
- To identify physical and human features of a location.
- How human settles and the impact on the environment.
- Developing field work skills at Juniper Hall.

How can I become a geographer?

Maths:

- Number and place value in real life
- Counting in multiples of 25 and 1000.
- Place value and measurements
- Addition and subtraction problems
- Solving problems using written methods
- Applying methods of addition and subtraction
- Working with and using measurements.

Computing:

- Developing word processing skills.

Spanish:

- Talking about family and themselves.
- Counting to 100 and how to say someone's age.

PSHCE:

- Learn about physical and emotional changes that happen during puberty.
- Reading the story Theo's mood (Maryann Coco-Leffler) and learning how to deal with changes.

RE:

- Learn about the Holy Spirit and the Pentecost
- Learn how the church began and Christianity spread

Art:

- To take digital photographs and use them to draw landscape art.
- To create 3D models of islands.