

Ready to Launch...

Visit to the Docklands Museum

Are you a Home Explorer?

- Could you make a model of a London monument?
- Where in London can you visit?
- Can you find any books set in London to read
Can you write a book review on one?

Why is London such an important city?

Time to celebrate!

- The Great London Exhibition

Expert knowledge:

- Nearly all Capital cities have rivers running through them.
- London was founded by the Romans, and was originally called Londinium.
- Many exotic goods were imported through London's docks.
- The river Thames starts at Thames Head in Gloucestershire

Wow moments

- Designing and creating London themed souvenir money containers
- Researching and creating an information booklet

English:

We learn:

- To describe characters and settings in a narrative based on the book 'Paddington'.
- To draft and write an informal letter.
- To take notes and write non-chronological reports on London monuments.

History & Geography :

We learn:* To explore the significance of the River Thames in London's development.

- To understand how London grew and changed over time.
- To understand how London became a important place for trade and finance.

Art:

We learn:

To draw London's buildings including details of pattern and texture. Relief prints of London's architecture using polytiles; line,

Spanish Introduce the first and second set of Spanish phonics sounds/phonemes with two interactive speaking and listening lessons

Science:

We learn:

- How sound travels through vibrations, and how our ear hears.
- To understand how sounds can be changed, and how we measure pitch and volume.

Why is London such an important city?

Maths:

We learn.

- To identify the place value of digits up to thousands.
- To add and subtract using the formal written method.
- To use factors and associated facts to aid multiplication.

PSHCE:

We learn:

- To make and maintain friendships
- To explore positive relationships and how to manage feelings.

D & T:

We learn:

- To design and create a money container suitable to be a souvenir from London.

RE: To explore the miracles of Jesus,. How Jesus' actions and words were an inspiration to others.

PE: Swimming

Tennis: Net and wall skills.

Music: Begin to learn to play the trumpet

Computing:

We learn: Familiarity of keyboard layout .and how to touch type.